

The spring meeting of the St. Croix Valley Reading Council will be held at
Ready Randy's Restaurant in New Richmond
Monday, May 14, 2018

Featured Speaker

Michael Ford

Mike Ford is newly retired from the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh where he served as chair of the Department of Literacy and Language and a Professor in the teacher education program working with undergraduate and graduate students for 29 years. He is a former Title I Reading and First Grade teacher. He is the author of 9 books and editor of 3 additional titles. He is a past president of WSRA and currently serves as chair of the advocacy committee.

The summer slide is real. Many children return to school in the fall having fallen further behind when they left school in the spring. How can families, schools and communities support children's literacy growth to keep the reading momentum going all summer long? This session will provide insights, ideas and resources to ensure children return to schools ready and able to build on their continued growth in reading and writing throughout the summer.

Evening Schedule:

4:30 p.m. Social Hour & Book Fair (The Valley Bookseller)

5:15 p.m. Dinner

5:45 p.m. Presentation by Michael Ford

Enjoy a taco bar dinner. Bars, cookies, and coffee are included.
