What is South Kettle Moraine Reading Council?

SKMRC is affiliated with the Wisconsin State Reading Association (WSRA).

The council is open to:

teachers,
librarians,
literacy leaders,
administrators,
education students,
researchers,
professors,
reading specialists

home-school instructors,

and

anyone who is interested in promoting life-long literacy.

SKMRC invites all educators to join the conversation and remain current in learning issues. The state and national affiliations provide research and resources to support our on-going professional learning.

The South Kettle Moraine Reading Council:

- Establishes a network for parents, teachers, librarians, administrators, and the community to share and discuss reading issues.
- Provides an avenue through which people can remain current on reading research, strategies, and high interest books.
- Promotes mutual understanding, collaboration, and cooperative work among reading professionals.
- Provides avenues of continuing professional learning.
- Promotes the enjoyment of reading!
