

CASEY O'KEEFE & KRISTEN
LINZMEIER

PRESENT:

LITERATURE, CLASSROOM
CONVERSATIONS, & COMPLEX

LANGUAGE: A JOURNEY INTO PERSONAL NARRATIVES

APRIL 24, 2019
5:30 P.M. TO 7:30
P.M.
HYLAND HALL
809 W. STARIN RD.
UW WHITEWATER
ROOM 1310

RSVP to niemuthk@sdoj.org by April 9, 2019 (sandwiches and sides will be served)

Professional educators are uniquely qualified to guide students through the process of constructing personal narratives as a means of engaging in literature while also supporting their students' complex syntax and vocabulary development. This presentation will provide a method for creating personal narratives and embedding Tier 2 vocabulary. The participants will create a narrative, select relevant vocabulary to embed in narratives, and discuss classroom applications. We hope to see you!