Discover...

The world's most trusted research-based literacy journals

IRA's peer-reviewed journals provide authoritative, research-based source material you know you can trust. And because each subscription comes with online access, you can perform targeted searches and connect to reliable web-based sources through live links.

- The Reading Teacher (K-6)—the most popular journal for elementary literacy educators, with the latest practical teaching techniques and articles that will encourage you to think critically and inspire you to put research into practice.
- Journal of Adolescent & Adult Literacy—the only literacy-focused journal devoted exclusively to older learners, and including topics such as integrating digital media into the classroom and motivating reluctant readers with alternative texts.
- Reading Research Quarterly—the highest-quality original literacy research rigorously vetted by the leading scholars in the field. Your go-to resource for evidence-based papers.

Add a journal to your IRA membership and get the latest tools and techniques delivered to your mailbox or your desktop!
